

Do you fancy a career in pupil relations?

Are you a people person?

Do you have excellent administrative skills?

Are you driven by results?

Priory School seeks applications for the role of Pupil Relations Officer to cultivate relationships with prospective parents, guiding them through the admissions process and ensuring they choose Priory School for their child. The candidate will also play a key role in developing relationships with our former pupils.

For an information pack please contact the School Secretary on 0121 440 4103.

Priory School is a Catholic independent school welcoming all faiths and abilities.
